

LEANDRO DA SILVA

Leandro Da Silva, Italian Brazilian dj producer, is strengthening his name in the worldwide house scene year after year. He closed 2019 #139 according to the Top 150 Dj Mag chart. For three years in a row he's been present in the top 101 producers of 1001tracklists (#11 in 2017, #21 in 2018, #34 in 2019).

In the past months Leandro travelled the world with gigs in Thailand, Vietnam, India, Japan, Brasil, Myanmar, Usa, Bahrain, Bali, Colombia and all over Europe including Hungary, Belgium, The Netherlands, Norway and Italy. He played at festivals such as Federal Music Festival, Balaton and Sea Star.

ONTAS, his tenth release on Spinnin' Records, will be released in December and in the past years he released a series of successful tracks on Big Beat-Atlantic Records, Warner Music, AFT:HRS, Armada and more.

One of Leandro's biggest touch down has been the official remix for David Guetta and Sia "Flames" out on Parlophone (N.1 on Beatport and more then 5 MLN streams on Spotify!) along with other important remixes for Oliver Heldens, Cleans Bandit and LP.

His works have been supported by names such as: Pete Tong, Oliver Heldens, Don Diablo, Kryder, Martin Garrix, David Guetta, Afrojack, Bob Sinclar and many more.

Moreover Leandro is founder and A&R of Black Lizard Records, a label with a Groove House trademark that keeps growing day by day.

